

40 Prayers from the Quran

A gift for those who seek nearness to

Allah

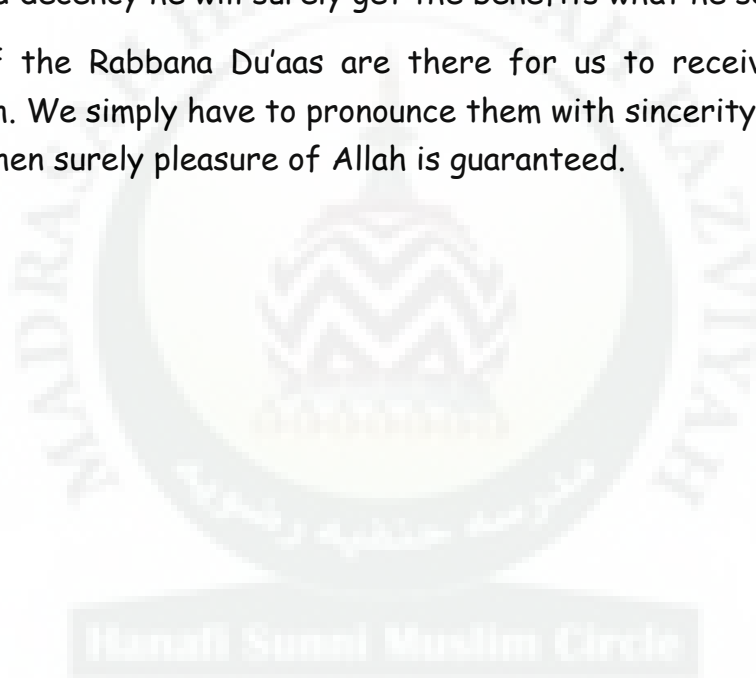

Du'aa is basically "to call out, to summon." Du'aa should be made at all times and in all circumstances. We should make a habit of making Du'aa because this habit gets us close to Allah Almighty.

Du'aa itself becomes a source of joy and comfort because indeed in the remembrance of Allah do hearts find peace.

It is important to realize that only if you can have a meaningful conversation with Allah in this life, will you be allowed to continue to have a dialogue with Him in Paradise.

"Rabbana" means 'Our Lord.' The name of Rabbana has been mentioned at several places in Quran. They have their own importance and endless benefits and virtues in Islam. It has been proved that if one recites these Rabbana with consolidation, obedience, and decency he will surely get the benefits what he seeks for.

The words of the Rabbana Du'aas are there for us to receive virtues from Almighty Allah. We simply have to pronounce them with sincerity, obedience, and inevitability then surely pleasure of Allah is guaranteed.
